

A public meeting on Sathya Sai Baba's

Universal Message & Humanitarian Works

- an inspiration to mankind

"Just as the eyes, ears and other limbs are part of the body, every individual is a part of society. Society is a limb of humanity. Humanity is a limb of Nature, and Nature is a limb of Universal Consciousness.

Man has to realise the integral relationship between himself and that Consciousness."

- Sri Sathya Sai Baba

Where: Elizabeth Jolley Lecture Theatre
Building 210.101
Curtin University of Technology
Kent Street, Bentley WA

When: Sunday, 15 May 2005
Time: 2pm-5pm

Parking Facilities: Free Parking Available - Car Park P3

All are welcome - no admission charge

Living kindness - pass it on

RSVP James Heng by 10th May, 2005.

Ph / fax: 9457 7357

e-mail: sai_western_australia@yahoo.com.au

Organised by the Sathya Sai Organisation
Australia & PNG